

THE ONLY FOUR HUNDRED

WARD McALLISTER GIVES OUT THE OFFICIAL LIST.

HERE ARE THE NAMES, DON'T YOU KNOW, ON THE AUTHORITY OF THEIR GREAT LEADER, YOU UNDERSTAND, AND THEREFORE GENUINE, YOU SEE.

"The so-called Four Hundred has not been cut down or dwindled to 150 names," said Ward McAllister yesterday. "The nonsense, don't you know, printed to that effect in the World and some other papers, has made a very bad impression that will reflect badly against them, you understand. That list of names, you understand, printed on Sunday, did not come from me, don't you see. It is unauthorized, don't you see. But it is accurate as far as it goes, you understand.

"It is incomplete and does injustice, you understand, to many eligible millionaires. Think of leaving out such names, don't you know, as Chauncey M. Depew, Gen. Alexander S. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet, Mrs. and Miss Wilson, Miss Greene, and many others! Don't you understand, it is absurd, senseless.

"Let me explain, don't you know. There are three dinner dances, don't you know, during the season, and the invitations, don't you see, are issued to different ladies and gentlemen each time, do you understand? So at each dinner dance, you know, are only 150 people of the highest set, don't you know. So, during the season, you see, 400 different invitations are issued.

"Wait a moment and I will give you a correct list, don't you know, of the people who form what is known as the Four Hundred. Do you understand it will be authorized, reliable, and, don't you know, the only correct list."

The society leader then gave the following list of names, which, he declared, constitutes the beau monde of New-York to-day:

DANCE OF THE HOWLING SWELLS.

THEIR LAST COTILLION FOR THE SEASON AT SHERRY'S.

The "howling swells" have danced their last cotillion for this season. The dance which took place last evening and this morning in Sherry's ballroom was the occasion for far more social éclat than characterized its predecessor on Jan. 4. The usual number of 300 were present.

The decorations of flowers and palms were on a very elaborate scale. In the lower halls were clusters of palms and flowering plants, but to the pink room, opening from the ball room, Siebrecht & Wadley, the florists, gave the most attention. The chairs and sofas were arranged tête-à-tête, and palms were placed around them so as to form "lover's nooks." The effect was very pretty. The man-els were banked with Spring flowers.

At 11:30 o'clock the cotillion was opened, Mr. Elisha Dyer, Jr., leading with Miss Wilson. There were no favors. Supper was served in the lower ballroom at 1 o'clock at separate tables, and until 3 o'clock there was informal dancing.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies, Mr. and Mrs. George Bend, the Misses Bend, Mr. and Mrs. H. Le Grand Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Chanler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Clarkson, Mr. and Mrs. R. James Cross, Miss Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dana, Mr. and Mrs. de Peyster, Miss de Peyster, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Goelet, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hall, Miss Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine G. Hall, Miss Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Abram S. Hewitt, Miss Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jaffray, Miss Jaffray, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic R. Jones, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kip, Miss Kip, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wilmerding, Miss Wilmerding, Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan Winthrop, Miss Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodworth, and Miss Woodworth.
